

I don't know what to say. Everything I say or most truths that have been revealed in the world are mostly falling on deaf ears so-to-speak. Only the Jews that don't see and hear the world exclusively with their ears and eyes of flesh, but instead feel the Truth from inside in their souls connected directly to Hashem. Only they understand and are trying to shake off all the needless Gashmius and search day and night in every way for a total connection physical and spiritual to Hakadosh Boruch Hu, The Hakol Yachol. The tiny speck of people that realize the Truth and are trying with all their hearts and souls to push away all of the idol worshipping Gashmius that has taken over most of the world and come back to the Pashtus, to the total simplicity of Hakadosh Boruch Hu and the world that He has been creating for these chosen few to continue His goals for the next stage upward of Creation.

Who am I talking to now? The vast majority or the tiny minority???. I beg you Daven Daven Daven! Ignore the world of lies which pounds on our lust and our desires for Gashmius. Ignore all of that! Pull yourselves closer and closer to Hakadosh Boruch Hu, to the Ribbono Shel Olam, to The Hakol Yachol and don't let go and don't look back because if you fail and look back, even for one moment, your fate will be much worse than becoming a big piece of salt. I don't think we have too much more time in order to change our ways. I don't think we have more than until Erev Hashanah Rabbah. It's time to make choices.
