Yearning for the Geula Sheleimah

Mommy, it is clear that life as we have known it is coming to an end on this planet. There is no question about it, it's an absolute fact. The financial system is falling apart everywhere. Social unrest is reaching the peak everywhere. Our western countries are unrecognizable, flooded with hundreds of thousands even millions of so-called refugees. Racial hatred is at its peak everywhere. The people in what was the most affluent countries where starvation, almost nobody knew the meaning of, in actuality has become a reality in many homes that were once affluent. The great democracies that everyone was so proud of that seemed to rule the western world have been defeated once more by communistic dictatorship types of governments who are seemingly being very successful enacting their final plan which is one world government, one world religion, and bringing the population of the world down to about five hundred million instead of seven point three billion.

So it's time we open our eyes and Daven to Hashem to save us. We don't have much time. We are being threatened in every direction and it's hard to be absolutely sure who the enemy is or where the final blow is going to come from. I still believe that Nibiru planet X will be visiting us very soon and then many people will immediately do Teshuva. It will be very frightening but whatever Hashem has in store will be according to the Nevuas which say that two thirds of the world will be destroyed but not Eretz Yisroel.

My words, I hope will encourage the true believers because the true believers are very tired of a world full of lies and are yearning for the Geula Sheleimah. Most of the people however don't really want their lives to be changed so much. But in order to attain the Geula Sheleimah you have to yearn for it. Even if it's only for a split second, you have to yearn for it.

There will be in the very near future a tremendous tragedy in all the world except in Eretz Yisroel. Two thirds of the world will be destroyed. Those that are left, the evil ones that are left, will come up against Eretz Yisroel. The Jews will enter their homes and wait. Hashem will protect them and Moshiach Tzidkainu will fight them alone, with the help of Hashem, against all the Reshoim and there will be none left, Be'ezras Hashem. Then we, Am Yisroel and all the Jews who are left in Chutz Laaretz, will be able to come and be Makriv Korbonos in the Bais Hamikdosh and feel for the first time true happiness and contentment.
