

I really don't have so much to say this week. It will be much of the same. However, it might also have some very bloody reminders that war is a very big possibility in the near future for the whole world. I feel a financial shake up, maybe towards the end of the week, not specifically in Israel at the moment, but in various key places in the world.

Am Yisroel, it is time to get your priorities straight! Come back to Hashem wholeheartedly. Throw away your needless Gashmius that is a barrier between you and Hakadosh Boruch Hu. Trust Him with all your heart and soul no matter what and know the absolute Truth - that the world as we know it is coming to an end and only those Jews who totally accept upon themselves Ol Malchus Shomayim in every way discarding all the frivolous stupidities and lies of Olam Hazeih, will survive. However, every Jew must also beg Hashem with all their hearts and souls to save them and only then will they be redeemed.

Again I tell you, every Jew that possesses a Jewish Neshoma will survive. However, as I have said many times before a Jew who is still far from the Truth will find it much harder to greet Moshiach. A Yid who is now steeped in the desires and lies of the world and who has difficulty eliminating all that in order to achieve closeness to Hashem will be forced by Hashem in the end to see and accept the Truth because he bears a true Jewish Neshoma even though he has gone astray. Ready yourselves, Am Yisroel. The clock is ticking and very soon the world will change drastically. You must make yourselves ready in order to survive without unbearable suffering.
